

THIRTY-THREE STILL MISSING

Making Total of 41 Probably Dead in Pacific Disaster.

REVISED LIST OUT

Boat That Rammed the Walla Walla is Either Sunk or Disabled.

AFFAIR IS A MYSTERY

Eureka, Jan. 4.—None of the missing rafts or boats supposed to hold survivors of the wrecked ship Walla Walla were heard from up to seven o'clock this morning. A number of tugs and steamers are continuing the search in the vicinity of the disaster but the hope of finding the unfortunate is practically abandoned. As the figures now stand the missing are: Cabin passengers, thirteen; stowage, twenty; and crew forty. The saved are cabin 31; stowage, 12; and crew, 39.

The Pacific Coast Steamship Co. claims that only twenty-nine are missing but admits that ten others were drowned.

A revised list issued later in the day by the steamship company shows one hundred and nine accounted for. Of this number eight are dead. Thirty-three are unaccounted for.

Some of the Walla Walla officers are of the opinion that the bark that rammed the Walla Walla was either sunk or seriously disabled. The fact that she did not stand by after the collision causes this belief.

Shipping men think the bark was Ernest Logouve from Hobart, Tasmania.

Frank Orrigo, a fireman who was taken off one of the rafts by the Dispatch was mad when rescued. His companions had hard work preventing him from drowning himself.

SKELETON IN A

LA CROSSE HOTEL

May Be Remains of Officer Seeking Moonshiners, Who Disappeared in 1880.

La Crosse, Wis., Jan. 4.—A ghastly find was made today by workmen engaged in tearing down the old International hotel, Frost and Pearl streets. The work of demolishing a once celebrated hostelry had progressed from the roof to the second story. At this point the flooring was being taken up when the skeleton of a man was discovered between the rafters over the office ceiling.

It was in a perfect state of preservation, except for the work of rats which had gnawed the bones about the joints. That the body had been placed there in a night shirt seemed evident from the fact that while no sign of clothing could be found there were buttons such as ordinarily are used on nightgowns.

The only explanation of the mystery is found in the disappearance from the hotel in 1880 of a detective named Cummings from the East who had been sent there to investigate alleged illicit whiskey distilleries in the city. The man disappeared in the night, leaving his clothes and effects at the hotel.

All efforts to locate him and to collect his bill were of no avail. It is now believed that he was done away with by moonshiners and his body secreted beneath the floor of his room.

ANTI-GERMAN RIOT AT ST. PETERSBURG

Lombard, Gallida, Jan. 4.—Dispatches from St. Petersburg report anti-German riots there, in which the German embassy was attacked and the German ambassador insulted. The Cossacks finally restored order after wounding thirty-eight of the rioters.

FAILURES FOR 1901 WERE 11,002;

LIABILITIES OVER $113,092,376

Report of the R. G. Dun Co. Showing the Insolencies in Business During the Past Year.

New York, Jan. 4.—Reports to R. G. Dun & Co. show that failures for the year 1901 were 11,002 in number, and $113,092,376 in amount of liabilities, while of banking and other financial institutions there were seventy-four insolencies, involving $18,918,774, a total of 11,076 defaults, and $131,111,150 liabilities. These figures compare very favorably with the 10,833 failures in 1900, with liabilities of $174,113,236, of which fifty-nine were banks, for $35,617,563.

Manufacturing disasters in 1901 numbered 2,441, with an indebtedness of $44,900,983, compared with 2,409 in the previous year, owing $51,702,142, while there were 7,965 suspensions of traders, for $52,060,040 against 7,844 in 1900, with liabilities of $59,415,582. The defaulted liabilities were 96 cents to each $1,000 of bank exchanges.

A ratio to the number of firms in business shows the entire amount of defaulted indebtedness averaged

WAR BETWEEN CANE AND BEET SUGAR

Southern Product Shipped to Northern Points to Compete with the Northern Product.

La Crosse, Wis., Jan. 4.—What is thought to be the opening of war between the cane sugar trust and beet sugar interests came to light here today. It has been learned that nearly $100,000 worth of cane sugar in excess of the amount required to supply the demand here, has been shipped to this city consigned to D. H. Howell of Chicago, representative of the cane sugar interests. Similar shipments are to be made to Minneapolis, St. Paul, and other Northwestern distributing points in the near future.

GIGANTIC DEAL IN TELEPHONE STOCK

Erie Co. Controlling the Badger System, to Reorganize with Capital Stock of $32,000,000.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 4.—The Erie Telephone and Telegraph company of which the Wisconsin Telephone company is a part, is to be reorganized with a capital of $32,000,000, and is to be under the control of the American Telephone and Telegraph company after January 10.

Circulars giving the details of the plan of reorganization have been sent to the share holders by the directors, with the recommendation that a new plan be accepted.

The circular states that the condition of the company is critical and that there are outstanding notes for $9,000,000, with interest at 5 per cent from July 10, 1901, falling due on January 10, 1902, which the company is unable to pay.

The circular also refers to the necessity of spending $6,000,000 on subsidiary companies which the Erie company is unable to furnish.

The reorganization plan involves the formation of a new company with $16,000,000 in preferred stock to be 6 per cent cumulative after two years from issue, and $16,000,000 in common stock at the par value of $100 a share.

This stock will be subject to an indebtedness of $10,000,000 gold bonds. The 1928 and 1929 bondholders of the present company are offered $800 5 per cent bonds of the new company due in 1932, and two shares of preferred stock for each $1,000 bond of the present company. The 1909 and the 1926 bondholders of the present company are offered $1,050 of 5 per cent bonds of the new company due in 1932, for each $1,000 bond of the present company. Present stockholders may purchase preferred and common stock in the new company upon payment of $25 a share of the present stock.

GIVES FULL AUTHORITY.

More Features of the Protocol with Nicaragua Disclosed.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Some of the main features of the protocol between the United States and Nicaragua referred to in President Zelaya's message to his congress have been made known in recent press dispatches from Managua. But there are many other important features which have not yet been disclosed, one of these being the complete American jurisdiction and the establishment of American courts, civil and criminal, throughout a zone six miles wide and extending from ocean to ocean, and including the proposed terminal, Greytown on the Atlantic and Brito on the Pacific.

The entire policing of this large tract also is placed in the hands of the United States, so that it has the power to preserve order and after that to issue judicial process extending throughout this zone. Besides the authority of American courts and of the American police on the six mile zone, the chief features of the protocol are in giving an American guaranty that the independence, sovereignty and integrity of Nicaragua shall not be disturbed by the rights thus conferred upon the United States.

WAR IS ACTIVE IN SOUTH AFRICA

London, Jan. 4.—Lord Kitchener reports that General Bruce Hamilton, who has been operating in the Southwestern Transvaal, has captured one hundred Boers including Gen. Erasmus.

Kroonstad, Orange River Colony, Jan. 4.—Col. Elliott in action with De Witt's rear guard after the battle of Twofontein, captured twelve Boers.

LONG TO RESIGN IN TWO MONTHS; ONLY WAITED FOR SCHLEY CASE

Congress is Expected to Act in Aid of the Admiral—No Censure for Capt. A. T. Mahan—Schley Calls on His Counsel

Washington, Jan. 4.—Secretary of the Navy Long is arranging his private affairs with the end in view of leaving the Cabinet within the next two months. Mr. Long would have resigned before this, it is stated, had it not been for the Schley-Sampson controversy. He did not care to have it said that he was leaving while "under fire."

No Censure for Captain Mahan. The navy department has decided not to call Captain A. T. Mahan's attention to the fact that he has been discussing the verdict of the Schley court of inquiry. The ground on which the navy department declines to act is that Captain Mahan took the same view of the court's verdict as was taken by the judge advocate general of the navy, having merely repeated official declarations and therefore was not censurable. It is pointed out here that it was not considered a Justification of General Miles that he discussed what he regarded as the verdict of the court, namely, the opinion of Admiral Dewey. The discrimination in the case is not well received here. The President has taken no notice of the remarks of Captain Mahan.

Schley Sees His Counsel. Admiral Schley returned to Washington late this afternoon from Baltimore, where he spent several days with his sister. While in Baltimore Admiral Schley saw Raynor and Teague, his counsel, but has made no definite announcement of his plans for future action against Maclay or the publishers of the Maclay history.

The prospects for Congressional action on Schley's case are very favorable.

The report sent out from Washington that senators had received a circular letter from Schley's enemies appears to be unfounded, so far as it applies to the senate generally.

J. P. MORGAN TRIES TO BUY A TITIAN; OFFERS $1,000,000 FOR A PICTURE

But Italian Government Blocks the Sale—The New York Banker Loans His Great Paintings to the London Royal Academy Exhibit.

London, Jan. 4.—At the Royal Academy's exhibition of old masters "Saint Anthony of Padua," which J. Pierpont Morgan has purchased for the enormous sum of $500,000, was the great attraction. The virgin and child are shown with Saint Peter, Saint Paul, Saint Catherine and Saint Rosalia, and above is a lunette with a design of the first person of the Trinity and two ministering angels.

The title of the picture is due to the fact that the scapular of Saint Anthony is shown embrodered on the tunic covering the shoulders of the child. As might be expected, the canvas is in wonderful condition. Mr. Morgan has lent four other magnificent pictures.

On the wall facing the Raphael is a superb Van Dyke portrait of a lady and little girl which cost Mr. Morgan another princely sum. The disproportion between the two figures in the picture enhances the stateliness of the lady, whose bejeweled dress is Painted with almost Holbein exactitude, not detracting, however, from the main interest of the portrait.

"Tonight" is another Morgan loan, a silvery rendering of Cardinal Ferdinand, who was governor of the low countries in 1633. In the fourth gallery the eye is immediately captured by the blue, red and green and gold of "The Holy Family" of Tritian, also lent by Mr. Morgan, who, it may here be stated, endeavored to crown his already unique collection by bidding $1,000,000 for the Borghese Titian, "Sacred and Profane Love," but the Italian government forbade its exportation.

Following precedent a single painter has been chosen for individual honor, and on the present occasion the happy choice has been made of Claude, the great Frenchman to whom Turner readily owed allegiance. On the whole the Academy is to be congratulated on the exhibition. Interesting and profitable to connoisseur and student alike.

TALK OF MR. GAGE FOR U. S. SENATOR

Retiring Secretary of the Treasury Suggested for Billy Mason's Place from Illinois.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 4.—Lyman J. Gage, the retiring secretary of the treasury is now being talked of as an available candidate for United States senator to succeed William E. Mason in the event that the Mason-Hopkins-Dawes contest develops a deadlock. The suggestion comes from Mr. Gage's warm personal friends in Chicago, many of whom have written him, pledging their unqualified support and urging him to become a candidate.

Secretary Gage has not given the matter very serious thought and has not encouraged the suggestion of his most intimate friends.

DENTIST RUN OUT OF A TOWN.

Paoli, Ind., Jan. 4.—A sensational scene was enacted here when a young woman compelled a dentist, under threat of horse-whipping, publicly to read an offensive letter he had written her and to make an apology to the large crowd which surrounded him, and finally to promise to leave town.

The incidents were the climax of a few hours of high tension, in which bloodshed was averted only by the action of cooler heads, as the dentist defied arrest for a time, and barricaded himself in his office, around which almost every person in the village swarmed. The man in the case is Dr. C. D. Driscoll. The young woman is Miss Eva Miller, formerly a resident of Paoli, but now employed as clerk in a store in the hamlet of Saffillo, a few miles north of Paoli.

HANNA LIKELY TO DEFEAT FORAKER

Columbus, O., Jan. 4.—Every sign low points to the defeat of Foraker in the fight for the control of the organization of the legislature. At least so far as the house is concerned. Though it is practically conceded that McKinnon, Hannas speakerhip candidate, has enough pledges to win, Foraker it is said, has not given up. There was cry of boodlers during the night and it was said that the big corporations and labor interests had placed their fate in Foraker's hands with instructions to win at any hazard.

DYNAMITE USED IN STRIKE.

Car Carrying Sattley Employees Wrecked in Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 4.—A street car which was conveying thirty-five employees of the Sattley Manufacturing company from the plow works in the evening was wrecked by dynamite which had been placed on the track at Ninth street and South Grand avenue, near the plow works, and the passengers were thrown into a panic, although none was seriously injured. The police have been unable to discover the perpetrators. When the employees of the works left the plant there was a fierce demonstration by a crowd which had assembled, and among which were several women. The employees were derided as "scabs" and the police guarding them as "scat herders." Sheriff Woods will probably be called upon by the Sattley company to protect its employees.

Big Fire in Omaha

Omaha, Jan. 4.—Fire early this morning destroyed the plants of the Douglas Printing Co., the Frontier Steam Laundry and the Western Electric Supply Co. Loss over one hundred thousand dollars.

MILWAUKEE MAN HAS GONE INSANE

Controller John R. Wolf Ordered to an Asylum by Probate Court Commission.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 4.—City Controller John R. Wolf was adjudged insane by the Probate Court yesterday afternoon. He will be committed to the asylum today. Mr. Wolf was one of the best known newspaper men in Wisconsin previous to his election as controller in 1898. He was taken ill eight weeks ago. Six weeks ago he came to Mount Clemens. He came back without any improvement, and for four weeks has been in a private sanitarium at Wauwatosa. His malady, it is believed, is not incurable, and no successor will be appointed as controller.

NATIONAL GUARD TO MEET JAN. 30

Adj. Gen. Boardman Today Sent Out a Call for a Meeting in Milwaukee.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 4.—(Special)—The National Guard Association of the state will hold its nineteenth convention at Milwaukee Jan. 30th and 31st. The call being sent out by Adjutant General Boardman today. Papers will be presented by Major C. R. Williams on the supply department; Major E. H. Grannis on food of the soldier; Lieut. Sampel Roessler on Company cooking in the field; Capt. O. E. Lewis on inspections, and Capt. Edward Chynoweth, U. S. A., on field exercises of the W. N. G. and suggestions for the future. There will also be discussion of other practical matters.

SAY CZOLGOSZ WAS MENTALLY SOUND

Experts Declare McKinley's Assassin Knew Perfectly Every Act—Anarchist at Heart.

New York, Jan. 4.—An exhaustive report on the trial, execution, autopsy and mental status of Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley is given in the New York Medical Journal for Jan. 4. The report embodies the result of much careful investigation by Dr. Carlos MacDonald, and Edward A. Spitzka of this city.

The question which these investigators set themselves to answer was when Czolgosz shot the president did he know the nature and quality of the act he was doing, and that the act was wrong? This was from the legal standpoint. From the standpoint of medical science the question that framed itself was "was Czolgosz at the time he committed the act a victim of mental disease or mental unsoundness?"

The reply to these questions which embodies the entire history of the case is to the effect that Czolgosz was sane and responsible under law and punishable for the offense, although everything in his history, according to the medical experts pointed to the existence in him of the social disease, anarchy, of which he was a victim.

SREIOUS CONFLICT IN BUDA PEST

Buda Pest, Jan. 4.—Rioting by the unemployed has been resumed here. During the night two thousand persons made a raid on the various shops plundering one hundred and thirty of them. The rioters had several conflicts with the police. Twenty of them were seriously wounded.

Four Section Men Killed

Menmouth, Ill., Jan. 4.—Four section men were killed by a passenger train on the Burlington this morning. They were going to work on a hand car and the coming train was concealed by the steam of a stalled freight on the other track.

MISS ROOSEVELT MADE HER DEBUT; BALL AT WHITE HOUSE IN HER HONOR

President's Eldest Daughter is Presented to Society—First Event of the Kind Since 1873.

Washington, D. C., January 4.—When the guests arrived at the White House they were conducted to the blue parlor where the presentations were made. Mrs. Roosevelt introducing her daughter. The latter presented a charming appearance in a dress of white chiffon, with white roses, and wearing the jewels her father gave her on Christmas day. Mrs. Roosevelt wore pure white with white lace, and trimmed with lilac orchids; Miss Helen Roosevelt a cousin of the president, and who also was of the immediate party of the hostess, wore white chiffon, with white satin ribbon, and Miss Cutting, white lace, trimmed with tulle, with pink roses.

Miss Roosevelt was the recipient of many floral pieces of beautiful design, sent to her in honor of her "coming-out" day. The president enjoyed the occasion heartily and mingled freely among the young folks. The dancing which began shortly after 10 o'clock and included a program of twenty numbers, was held in the large east room, the scene of so many brilliant functions of the past.

CONGRESS WILL RESUME MONDAY

Ready to Grapple with Work of the Long Session.

FIGHT IN SENATE

Democrats Will Insist on Free Trade with the Philippine Islands.

ARMY STAYS IN CUBA

Washington, Jan. 4.—Most of the leading members of congress in the city are prepared to grapple with the work of the long session which will resume Monday and which will not terminate until June or July.

The most interesting event of the near future will be the consideration by the senate of the Payne Philippine revenue bill. The democratic members of the committee to which the bill will be referred are expected to submit a minority report insisting upon free trade with the islands. A hot fight on the floor of the senate for the establishment of this principle would have a far reaching effect.

The most important subject on tap in the house is the Hepburn bill for the construction of the Nicaraguan canal. It is predicted the measure will pass the house virtually as introduced. Later the anti-anarchy, Chinese exclusion, Pacific cable and other important bills will be taken up.

Army Will Stay in Cuba.

There will be no withdrawal of American troops from Cuba after the ceremony of transferring the island to the new republican government has been performed. The only actual difference in the present condition so far as the American military occupation is concerned, will be the abandonment of the present scattered barracks and the concentration of troops in naval and coaling stations which are to be located by treaty agreement before the new Cuban congress convenes.

The effect of this action will be to maintain in Cuba for an indefinite period a considerable army of American soldiers under the command of a general officer.

TO SPREAD STUDY OF HOLY BIBLE

Prof. W. H. Williams Plans a Movement Similar to the University Extension Course.

Marquette, Wis., Jan. 4.—Professor W. H. Williams of the University of Wisconsin faculty is perfecting an organization whereby lectures on Bible history and the study of the Old and New Testament may be taken up on about the same plan as a university extension course. His organization will have as its incorporators about 150 of the best known and most prominent people in the state of Wisconsin. In Marquette, Mrs. Isaac Stephenson has agreed to be one of the incorporators, and the Rev. T. S. Anderson, pastor of the Presbyterian church will be secretary. A large number of incorporators have been secured in Milwaukee, Madison, Oshkosh, Janesville, LaCrosse and other cities.

News of the Theater

The success of three continents, "Florodora" will be seen at the Myers Grand for one performance next Monday night. Many of the catchy airs from this popular musical comedy have preceded the production and have had the happy effect of making their hearers hungry for more. "Tell me, pretty maiden," and "Under the shade of the palms" are among the many melodies that have floated westward, but the melodious concert is crowded with tunes that stick to the memory. The company to appear here in the place numbers one hundred and travels in a special train of seven Pullman coaches. Among the principals are Miss Grace Dudley, Miss Maude Lambert, Miss Francis Gordon, Miss Ida Doerge, Miss Selma Mantell, W. T. Carleton, Philip H. Ryley, Chas. H. Bowser, M. J. Smith, Chas. Lloyd and Sidney Jarvis. That the fame of "Florodora" had preceded it is simply evidenced at the box office of the opera house where hundreds have already made inquiries about seat reservations. Says the San Francisco Call: "The music is bright, the lines are funny, there is a plot that can be discerned without the telescope, and, last, not least, everybody from the corset drummer to the festive granger can secure square meals, a front room with southern exposure and all modern convenience at your own figures."

Everything this season is up-to-date and a jolly night with more fun than you can shake a stick at is assured.

Theatrical Notes

Louis Mann and Clara Lipman in "The Red Kloof" are meeting with great success on tour.

The Rogers Brothers in "The Rogers Brothers in Washington" are packing the Chestnut street opera house in Philadelphia.

"Ben-Hur" will begin a four weeks run in Philadelphia January 14th. It is drawing tremendous audiences at the Alvin in Pittsburgh.

"San Toy," the musical comedy that presents a humorous side of Chinese life, is drawing immense audiences in the principal southern cities.

Andrew Mack's tour in "Tom Moore" is the most successful in his career as a star. His business this season is double that of his most precious previous year.

Mary Manning will begin her third season as a star next October at the Garrick theater in New York, in a new play by Clyde Fitch dealing with high society life in the metropolis.

Frank McKee will give this piece a very elaborate production. N. C. Goodwin and Maxine Elliott will return from London January 11th.

George J. Appleton, their business manager, is now in New York preparing for their tour of the principal cities, which opens in Brooklyn, January 20th.

Klaw & Erlanger's production of the Drury Lane spectacle, "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast," is drawing such tremendous crowds to the Broadway theater that the management has been forced to present extra matinee performances.

NEWS AND GOSSIP FROM LINE CITY

Marvelous Record Made by the Beloit Fire Department During the Past Year.

Beloit, Jan. 4.—The record made by the Beloit fire department during the year 1901 is nothing short of miraculous. Ninety-three alarms were responded to and with millions of dollars' worth of property involved the losses as adjusted by the insurance companies totalled the remarkably small sum of $1,256.60. This was as against fifty-four runs made during the year 1900 with a loss of $13,741.00.

During the year the West Side company laid 15,600 feet of hose, used water twenty-five times and chemicals thirty-seven times, and traveled 121 miles. The east side company laid 8,600 feet of hose, used water twenty-two times and traveled 147 miles.

The biggest single loss of the year was in the Zilly block on State street, July 30, when the loss was adjusted by the insurance companies at $950.

Sept. 5, was the record breaking day for fires the department answering six alarms during the day and one early in the morning of Sept. 6th—making seven alarms in less than twenty-four hours.

The fire at the east end of the Keeler lumber yards on July 11 took the longest lead of hose during the year—1,750 feet, 1,600 feet was laid at the Keeler Athletic field fire.

Rev. F. J. Mallett has accepted the call to become pastor of the Sharon, Penn., Episcopal church and will move to that city about the middle of the month with his family.

Von Ogden Vogt has commenced his duties as college librarian. William R. Spensely will probably be chosen as his assistant.

OLD FOLKS.

Men and women who have reached advanced years of life need a medicine to tone up the system and strengthen the stomach and kidneys, which after so many years, faithful service have become weakened. The best medicine to meet their needs is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not fail to try it.

Grandfather John Harris, Clayville, Ky., says: "I have used your Bitters and attribute my long life and continued good health to its use."

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

GENERAL DE WET.

There is many a chief in song and story Who has boldly struck for fame and glory: But who of them all I pray you tell Has struggled and roared and fought so well, As he who now on history's page Writes of grim war and the battle's rage.

From east to west, from north to south, From Lydenberg's peaks to the Valt river's mouth, He charges and runs, then turns to fight As can only those who with freedom's might Feel their arms made strong, their hearts aflame To strike for their homes in freedom's name.

Flight on, brave chief, thou son of man; For the noble cause, like the changeless stars Has lighted the world since the days of old.

With a glance that reaches to heaven's dome, The world stands waiting when thy task is done To crown with laurel when the victory is won.

Selfishness Poor Estimate of Worth. Clinton, Wis., Jan. 2, 1902.—Editor Gazette:—Not that I think I can say better than others could, if they would, but that I fear that others do not tell us the truth, about our selfish, dishonest actions, do I ask you to publish the following in your paper, which has been a success in the past and I trust your honest purpose will make it more successful in future.

Christianity points the way to religion. It is said that all Christians will not walk therein. Like a bill of fare, with nothing to eat, is Christianity alone, like the 'white sepulcher' is void of virtue.

Every-day religion like A. Lincoln's honesty is a fountain of humanity. Christianity pointing the way to religion does no more good to the selfish, dishonest, who will not practice humanity than the guide-board pointing to Heaven when a man is in hell, because he did not do by others as he would have others do by him.

A man may have the best bills of fare, if isolated from something to eat, yet starve. So a man may talk Sunday with the eloquence of Cicero and not be religious the other six days. But a man cannot be thoroughly religious every day, and not be Christian Sunday.

He who over-estimates worthless self, so much that he considers self the all-important thing, cannot fairly estimate the confidential generosity of brother. The minister who estimates that his preaching Sunday to those who believe themselves saved by innocent blood is as good to humanity as his preaching every day would be to those who realize that their selfishness had been so great that they are ashamed to speak to the victim of their dishonesty, does not rightly estimate God's love.

He who has enjoyed the confidential business association of his brother for years, and selfishly appropriated the proceeds to his selfish interests, until he imagines himself worthy of, and entitled to, every office, and his victim unworthy of his recognition, is so void of sense of justice that he does not fairly estimate the distinction between justice and injustice.

He who asks for salary, or share the rich to extort 8 per cent. interest on interest from the poor and thanks "Our God" that it pays the money monger to be Christian Sunday because the victim does not suspect the pious thief, does not fairly estimate the difference between the religion of Samaritan and profession of priest.

He who buys corn in the crib, by the ton, and sells it fifty-six pounds for a bushel as saved seed, guaranteeing 36 per cent. to grow, when not 10 per cent. will grow, and then tells his Y. M. C. A. friends Sunday that he desires to do business as Christ would if He was here, does not estimate correctly the grandeur of Christ's teachings.

The man who fairly and honestly estimates himself every day, by his own actions, will not condemn his neighbor who does better than he does, only because he makes less pretense Sunday.

THOS. A. AMES.

Burns' Birthday Celebration

The executive committee of the Rock County Caledonian society held a meeting last evening and made arrangements for holding their annual celebration of Burns' birthday. His birthday this year falls on Saturday and for that reason the party will be given on Friday evening, January 24.

Committees were chosen to make all arrangements and to prepare a program which will be along the same lines as heretofore. There will be a literary and musical exercise followed by a dance.

Salt Rheum

It may become chronic.

It may cover the body with large, inflamed, burning, itching, scaling patches and cause intense suffering.

It has been known to do so.

Do not delay treatment.

Thoroughly cleanse the system of the humors on which this ailment depends and prevent their return.

The medicine taken by Mrs. Ida E. Ward, Cove Point, Md., was Hood's Sarsaparilla. She writes: "I had a disagreeable itching on my arms which I concluded was salt rheum. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and in two days felt better. It was not long before I was cured, and I have never had any skin disease since."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. It is positively unequalled for all cutaneous eruptions. Take it.

GOOD TEMPLARS DEDICATE HALL

An Open Meeting on the Third Floor of the R. M. Bostwick Building Last Night.

An open meeting of Peoples' Lodge No. 460 Independent Order of Good Templars was held last evening for the purpose of dedicating their cheery and prettily furnished hall on the third floor over R. M. Bostwick's clothing store on South Main street. There was a large attendance of members and friends on the lodge and the evening was spent in most enjoyable manner.

The lodge was opened according to the usual custom. Chief Templar Sidney King presiding. After the opening exercises J. A. Caniff took charge of the program which opened with a well rendered violin solo by J. D. Hall, Miss Olive Trambly playing the organ accompaniment. Other numbers on the first part of the program were the pleasing singing of "The Tie That Binds" by Misses Grace King and Olive Clifford. Miss Trambly at the organ; a recitation prettily given by Miss Florence Evans, and a violin solo by Norma Evans with her father, Charles D. Evans as organist.

This last number was especially fine and merited the hearty encore which it received and to which the young violinist responded.

J. A. Caniff made a few interesting remarks concerning the history of the local lodge which was organized twenty-two years ago last October by Rev. Sewell. A meeting has been held every week since then and there have been over 1,000 members in the lodge. Some have moved away; some have died and others have drifted out of lodge work. There are now seventy members. About fifty couples have been married out of the lodge. Many letters have been received from former members who have started lodges in other places. In the present membership there are two charter members, Mr. Caniff and his wife. Continuing Mr. Caniff spoke of the purpose of the meeting, the dedication of the new hall, and called on Rev. T. B. North of Milton for the dedicatory address.

Rev. North made an eloquent and able address. He spoke of the fact that district lodges and schools for the educating the young in lessons of temperance. Few lodges have so good a record as the Jamesville lodge and the speaker hoped the new room would see more good done.

Temperance work is not all done so there is a large field of work. Great advancement has been made and within fifty years no man who drinks will be able to hold a position. The Good Templar order is one division in the great army against the use of intoxicating drinks and it must continue to educate the young. No other business house has the favors which the saloon enjoys.

Other merchants are compelled to sell pure goods but all that is required of the saloon is the payment of a license. The attitude of the legislature is not to injure the liquor traffic and is the duty of temperance workers to educate the public so as to right this wrong, to create a sentiment which will demand honest and clean men as public officials.

Rev. North closed with an exhortation to the young people to be earnest, active loyal Good Templars, strong, pure and bright in their lives. No one can afford to indulge in anything which weakens intellectual or physical vigor. There are other evils as well as the intoxicating cup and he who plays with temptation is on dangerous ground. He hoped the new hall would see many a stalwart go forth for God and humanity.

Charles D. Evans and his daughters, Misses Florence and Norma, pleased the audience by singing "Only a Tramp" after which Rev. James Churn, pastor of the First M. E. church, made a brief address in which he mixed humor and serious thought in a most entertaining way. He said he was especially pleased to hear of the number of couples who had been married in the lodge and that many of them had remained in the work of the lodge even after marriage.

Later he laughingly insinuated that if there were fifty more couples who wished to be married he was ready to receive them. He spoke briefly of the saloon as a law defying power against which Good Templars must join hands and hearts, the pulpit and pew must work together and all Christian forces must unite if the monster is to be downed. The liquor traffic is the greatest curse of the age the world over and it must go as sure as right is right and God is God. If the saloons of the country were put side by side it would make a solid row over 1,000 miles long. Rev. Churn illustrated his address with amusing stories which kept the audience in the best of humor.

After the program a very enjoyable social session was held.

WEATHER FORECAST.
Fair tonight Sunday warmer.

THE BEST COUNTRY.

On New Years morning a boy with a flag, followed by a drummer and half a dozen high privates, marched into a down town office, and removing their hats, said to the good natured man at the desk:

"We wish you a happy new year."
The man laid down his pen, and turning to the enthusiastic little group, said:

"Thank you, boys; I wish you a great many; but what started you out this winter morning with martial music to celebrate New Years day?"

The boy with the flag, who seemed to be the captain, as well as the spokesman, said:

"Well, we've got a little club over in our ward called the Anti-Anarchist club, and we thought it would be a good plan to commence the new year with a patriotic celebration, for we believe that this is the best country in the world, and we propose to stick up for it."

About this time a delivery clerk came in with a box of confectionery and the boys enjoyed a New Years treat, while they discussed patriotism with the man who always had time to entertain boys, because he believed in them, and a little flight of imagination pictured to his mind the men of the next generation.

The boys commenced the year right, and their example is worthy of imitation, in spirit, at least, by every country loving citizen.

It is perfectly natural that people who come to our shores from other lands should retain love, and many pleasant memories of the old birthplace. The representatives of twenty-one nations came to us last year, seeking to better their condition, and asking for adoption.

Four hundred thousand children of this class seek admission every year, and the wonder is that they assimilate so readily. It is like pouring a mixture of a variety of colors into clear water, and attempting to keep the fountain pure.

Of course a majority of these foreign children come to us, not to criticize and find fault, but with honest purpose to improve conditions, and enjoy the benefits of a national home that has no rival.

That socialism and anarchy should be represented is to be expected and that they frequently come to the surface is not a matter of surprise.

But what of the nation that is called upon, year after year, to absorb and Americanize this mixed population, and what of the duties of American citizenship under these peculiar circumstances?

The boy who is selected for a scholarship in either the naval or military school, graduates to become a minor officer in the army or navy, he is expected to know more about tactics than the man in the ranks and his loyalty or patriotism is never questioned.

The American boy from every home ought to be a full fledged American citizen at the age of twenty-one, so filled with love of country and patriotism, as well as intelligence, as to be able to inspire others with enthusiasm for the best country in the world.

The boys' movement recently organized in Chicago, is along the right line, and it should spread over the country, until every town, city and hamlet is touched by its helpful influence.

American boys, of whatever descendants, are entitled to the best equipment that can possibly be furnished, before they assume the responsibilities of citizenship.

It is a great honor to be a son of this great republic, as well as a great honor to be adopted by it.

The next generation is not very far removed and the men of that distant day, are the boys of the home and of the street of this generation.

Our energies are devoted to temperance reform, political purity, and a long list of impractical and visionary schemes that have to do with men whose habits are fixed, and prejudices fully developed, while the boys are turned loose to shift for themselves to a large extent. Is it any wonder that results are disappointing, and that vice and impurity seem constantly on the increase?

If half the energy devoted to impractical things was turned toward the rising generation the transformation in a few years would be marvelous.

All honor to the little coterie of men and women who appreciate this fact, and who are working faithfully and intelligently along these practical lines.

The old world is practically standing still today, with eyes turned toward America, and wondering what the nation will hesitate to grasp in the way of accomplishment.

The rapid stride of industries has already transformed us from a cereal producing to a manufacturing nation.

France comes to us for information and asks the privilege of founding a school in Chicago for the training of French youth in American business methods and industries. The highest honor that one nation could possibly confer upon another.

The American boy who is not proud of his country is mentally or morally deficient. There is no nation under the sun that compares with it in point of privilege and opportunity. God, home, and country, are the three words that should inspire every loyal heart.

An anarchist is always an atheist. The government of a Supreme Being is as irksome as any other class of government, and so he is relieved of all sorts of obligation by skepticism.

The American boy is neither an anarchist nor an atheist. He may not recognize the claims of Deity, but it is impossible for him to breathe the atmosphere of a christian nation and be skeptical.

This year 1902 should be a history making year, and as the daily record is made, every page should be filled with loyalty and patriotism. If this is done and the boys of the land are encouraged to take an active part, the future is assured and the nation will become in fact as well as in name the best country in the world.

DID YOU REFORM?

Of course you did, for that is a New Years custom.

Have you made a slip and gone back to the old habits?

There's nothing strange about that; habits are frequently stronger than resolutions.

Are you discouraged, and have you decided not to try again?

That's foolish, for the year is young. Only four days' gone.

Do you think it better to never resolve, than to resolve and fail?

If so, you are mistaken. Better fail a hundred times, and try again, than never try.

Did the retrospect find you so good that you had nothing to reform?

Then your case is hopeless, and you had better take another glance.

Some people's eye sight needs correcting. They never see any one but themselves.

Others have ears that flap the wrong way, and the sigh of humanity is never recognized.

There is such a thing as a tongue that is sharp and bitter, needing a curb.

Sometimes this organ is hung in the middle and gossips going and coming.

It has been known to swear and lie, to cheat and defame. This troublesome member, the tongue.

There are minds that are vacant and others that are storehouses of meanness.

Hearts that are full of sin and uncleanness and hatred.

Appetites that are ungoverned.

Habits that hold in thrall.

Are you perfect?

Then you should retire with wings.

The fabulous sum of $800,000,000 is said to represent the profits on all classes of industries in the United States, during the year 1901. This means a capital investment of more than ten times that amount. Add to this the value of farm, and other classes of property, and the wealth of the country will be appreciated.

Cuba now has an opportunity to test her ability for self-government. Mistakes will doubtless be made by the young republic, as the change from serfdom to independence is very radical. The island will not forget that she has a fostering ally near at hand.

The failures of 1901 show that less than one per cent. of them was caused by dishonesty. This speaks volumes for the integrity of business men and is a rebuke to people who are possessed of the notion that dishonesty is necessary to business success.

In the death of Judge Elliott, Milwaukee has lost one of her best citizens. Judge Elliott combined with broad intelligence and a well-furnished mind, a heart that beat in sympathy with humanity. He enjoyed the confidence and highest regard of associates, and the love and friendship of all who knew him.

Crane & Co., of Chicago, gave to their 3,500 employees, a Christmas gift amounting to five per cent. of their wages. It amounted to $125,000. That was a generous thing to do, and yet some people think that capital has no right to live.

The industrial depression in Germany is receding, and better times are anticipated in 1902.

Seeing by telephone is the latest discovery, and Dr. Sylvester of Paris, claims the honor. With wireless telegraphy, flying machines, and visual communication, life will be a round of pleasure.

PRESS COMMENT.

Lacrosse Republican and Leader: Gov. Shaw's modesty is as marked as his ability. He says he will be satisfied if he succeeds in conducting the treasury department as well as Secretary Gage has done.

Whitewater Register: Taking into account all the ceremonies which took to marry Senator Dewey, Chauncey might be called a much-married man. And after all the ceremonies his marriage will not bring him any more of joy and blessing than has come to millions of lesser men who were united to the girl of their choice by a few short words from some obscure country minister.

Evening Wisconsin: It ought to be gratifying to the American people to note the Cubans' willingness to co-operate for their own welfare, as shown in the choice of an executive who is in harmony with the administration at Washington. The United States meant what it said when it went to war for the amelioration of the condition of the people of Cuba, and it is pleasing to have the Cubans show their gratitude to the extent of making the way clear to a realization of the hopes of their best friends.

Milwaukee Sentinel: "We have no time for genius in America," says President Schurman of Columbia university. Not just now, but we are liable to take a day off any time to see if there is any money in the thing.

Roosevelt might have selected Robert La Follette for a cabinet position—but he didn't and wouldn't.—Marquette Eagle.

God's patient poor are probably aware that taxes are higher now than they were when Governor La Follette extended them his sympathy.—Lodi Valley News.

Governor La Follette ran wild in a special train, principally at the expense of the railways. In the last campaign. If he runs loose and independent this time, the chances are that he will be bagged long before he reaches the end of the woods.—Lodi Valley News.

What right had the governor to read the "riot act" to the legislature or to meddle in any way with the workings of that body? Wouldn't he look fine reading the "riot act" to the supreme court? Yet he would have as much right to read "riot acts" to the one as to the other.—Hocmer Advance.

When you sit down and think real hard, so as to dispel any mist that may have gathered on your brain, try and remember some good thing that has been done for the state by Governor La Follette since he took office and then walk around this way and tell us what it was.—Onalaska Record.

TWO KILLED; MANY HURT.

Freight Train Crashes Into Passenger on New York Central.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 4.—A head-on collision occurred on the New York Central in the morning at Francher, fifteen miles east of Medina. Two men were killed and a number of passengers injured. Mrs. Catharine Reddy of 25 West Thirty-second street, New York, was injured in the back, one of her limbs was bruised and she is suffering from a shock. A number of passengers lost their overcoats and baggage by the fire. Train No. 335, which left Rochester at 8:25 this morning for this city, was standing at Francher Station when a freight train ran into it. The engine was derailed and badly damaged, as was the rear car of the passenger train, which took fire, but the flames were soon extinguished.

A Delightful Luncheon

About forty young ladies were delighted guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. A. P. Burnham at her pleasant home, 363 St. Lawrence place yesterday afternoon, in honor of Miss Parsons of Toledo, O., who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Watt. Mrs. Burnham was assisted in receiving by Miss Parsons and after the cordial greetings were over, the pleasure of the afternoon centered around the card tables where six-handed euchre was played. Miss Anna Valentine won the first prize, a handsome silver spoon, and a Wedgewood calendar consoling Miss Mabel Jackson for having the lowest score.

Mrs. Burnham was assisted in its faultless service by Mesdames John G. Rexford, W. G. Wheeler, C. S. Putnam and D. W. Watt.

Farmers in With Tobacco

The end of West Milwaukee street near the Five Points was lined today with teams loaded with tobacco. Some of the dealers have purchased quite a number of crops of 1901 and they were receiving today. The crops while not near up to the 1900 standard is in fair shape. The dealers are anxious to get some of the crop on the tables to see how it is going to turn out. John Soullman and Co. were doing the bulk of the receiving today.

THE BOY GIANT GOES TO SCHOOL

Copyright, 1900, by Caroline Wetherell.

The giant, Ah Grim, went to school.
Jack feared he would grow up a fool
Unless he was taught
Big A and round naught
And how to tell cotton from wool.
When at the schoolhouse they arrived,
The master, of courage deprived,
Fell down in a faint
In a pan of fresh paint.
While under the desks the scholars dived.

When Jack had explained why he came
And mentioned that Ah Grim was tame,
The master arose,
Wiped the paint from his clothes
And put on the roll Ah Grim's name.
Then school was adjourned 'neath the trees.
The giant learned but by degrees.
On the dunce stool he sat
And wore the dunce hat,
Which caused the school mirthful "tee-hees."

GAGE'S SUCCESSOR.

New Cabinet Officer is Democratic.
Modest and a Millionaire.

Six years ago Leslie Mortimer Shaw, governor of Iowa, who has been appointed secretary of the treasury to succeed Lyman J. Gage, was practically unknown outside of his home town. During this brief period Governor Shaw has leaped from obscurity to national fame, and today his name is as well known as that of any man in the public eye.

When William J. Bryan was stumping the country in his first campaign, Mr. Shaw heard him discuss the silver question, and he determined to answer the speech. This he did a week later at

LESLIE MORTIMER SHAW.

Denison, Ia., and continued making sound money speeches until the close of the campaign. These speeches not only landed him in the gubernatorial chair of Iowa, but they also brought him before the country as a man who had a comprehensive knowledge of the financial problem.

Governor Shaw is noted for his democracy, and some people have criticized him for what they term his "lack of dignity"—a lack that has resulted in likening him to Lincoln. A visitor to the statehouse is as likely to find him talking to workmen about the building as with his official advisers. This democracy has endeared him to the people of the state and has made him invincible in political contests. He was born in a log cabin in Vermont and spent his boyhood on a Vermont farm. The home life of the governor is in keeping with his simple character. He is a Methodist and is opposed to dancing. Liquor he never drank, he does not know the taste of tobacco and is said to treat his servants as his equals. He is fifty-four years old and very hale and vigorous.

The family of Governor and Mrs. Shaw consists of Miss Edith Shaw, the eldest child, who is now attending Cornell college at Mount Vernon, Ia.; their son Earl, seventeen years old, is a student at Culver Military academy, and Emma, aged fifteen, is the only child now at home.

As a worker the new member of the cabinet is indefatigable. He is an early riser and has immense respect for the winning capacity of hard work. His wealth is estimated at $1,500,000, so he will have no difficulty in meeting the social demands of his position.

HAY'S DAUGHTER TO WED.

Washington Society Agog Over Coming Nuptial Event.

What promises to be one of the most brilliant events of the social season in Washington is the forthcoming marriage of Miss Helen Hay, daughter of the secretary of state, and Mr. Payne Whitney, son of William C. Whitney of New York.

capital. She has won some fame as a writer of pretty verses and is the author of several books of poems.

Payne Whitney is a graduate of Yale and was recently admitted to the New York bar in the appellate division of the supreme court. He is a lover of outdoor sports and very popular with his friends. He has traveled extensively in this country and Europe and last summer crossed the ocean with his uncle, Colonel Oliver Payne, and a party of friends in the latter's yacht, the Aphrodite.

Every woman in the country ought to know about

Mother's Friend

Those who do know about it wonder how they ever got along without it. It has robbed childbirth of its terrors for many a young wife. It has preserved her girlish figure and saved her much suffering. It is an external liniment and carries with it therefore, absolutely no danger of upsetting the system as drugs taken internally are apt to do. It is to be rubbed into the abdomen to soften and strengthen the muscles which are to bear the strain. This means much less pain. It also prevents morning sickness and all of the other discomforts of pregnancy.

A druggist of Macon, Ga., says: "I have sold a large quantity of Mother's Friend and have never known an instance where it has failed to produce the good results claimed for it."

A prominent lady of Lamberton, Ark., writes: "With my first six children I was in labor from 24 to 30 hours. After using Mother's Friend, my seventh was born in 4 hours."

Dead Dog Difficult.

Dogs that are naturally nervous, as most terriers are, sometimes prove difficult pupils when a lesson is the old trick of "dead dog." However, by a great deal of patience a fox terrier or a black and tan can be taught to lie down and close its eyes, being to all appearances asleep. The first step is get the dog to lie down at command. This is often more difficult than to get it to stand up and walk. It is best accomplished by pushing the dog down on his side, all the time saying, "Lie down" or "Down." When the dog catches the idea and tries to do as he is told, give him some goodies. He will try in every way to please you next time, and before long he will understand what it means when he is told to lie down. Then it is not so difficult to get him to lie still, unless, indeed, a mouse should run across the floor, which once brought the best trained dog in a large circus to grief. And just been shot as a deserter in the army and had fallen over a mouse when a mouse ran across the floor. The dead deserter was up in a blink and after the mouse, and, of course, he had to have a whipping for letting his part.

My Ships at Sea.

Whichever way the wind doth blow
Some heart is glad to have it so.
Then blow it east or blow it west,
The wind that blows, that wind is best.

My little craft sails not alone;
A thousand fleets from every zone
Are out upon a thousand seas;
What blows for one a favoring breeze
Blows dash another with the shock
Of doom upon some hidden rock,
And so I do not dare to pray
For winds to wait me on my way.

Indian Boys' Home Training.

The following account of the Omaha Indian boy's home training is given by Mr. Francis La Flesche, an Omaha Indian:

"No child is permitted to interrupt an older person or to pass between two persons who are speaking, still less to come between them and the fire. They are strictly enjoined never to stare at strangers nor to address any one by his personal name without giving a title.

"From his earliest years the Omaha child has been trained in the correct use of his native tongue. No mistake was allowed to pass uncorrected. "No Indian parent ever whips his child. When it commits a fault, the entire family assemble in solemn conference, and it is summoned and reproved with such gravity that it never forgets the lesson."

A Novel Way of Capture.

The pet monkey of a German professor, having made his escape, climbed into a tree and defied all attempts to catch him. Well knowing the imitative habits of the animal, his master hit on a curious plan to regain his pet. He looked at the monkey through an opera glass, pointing the small end at him, for some time, and then he retired to a short distance, leaving the opera glass on the ground. The imitative monkey descended from the tree and, taking the opera glass, gazed after a similar manner at his master, who seemed to the deluded ape to be half a mile distant. The monkey, still looking through the same end of the opera glass, supposed his master was several hundred yards distant when the latter, reaching out, secured the chain and led him back to his cage.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE MEET

The Mid-Winter Rally of Unions in Rock and Green Counties.

ABOUT 40 PRESENT

Cordial Welcome to Delegates at Baptist Church Yesterday Afternoon and Evening.

TWO HAPPY SESSIONS

An inspiring meeting of young people was held in the parlors of the Baptist church yesterday afternoon and evening, the occasion being the mid-winter rally of the Janesville association of Baptist Young People's Unions. The association includes the Baptist Young People's societies of Rock and Green counties and about forty delegates were present as representatives of out of town societies. The meetings were also attended by a large number of young people of the local Baptist church.

Given Cordial Welcome. The majority of the delegates arrived shortly before noon and were met at the depot and taken directly to the church parlors where a cordial welcome and an appetizing dinner awaited them.

An elegant supper was served at the close of the afternoon session.

Miss Imogene MacDonald had charge of the local arrangements and discharged her duties efficiently, being aided by a number of excellent assistants, including Mrs. Mary Lawrence, Mrs. J. T. Fitchett, Misses Elizabeth Palmer, Irene Van Vranken and Georgia Glass.

The afternoon session opened at 3:30 o'clock and was a typical rally meeting at which C. D. Mayhew, of Albany, the association's president, was the presiding officer.

A ten minute song service was led by Miss Elizabeth Palmer with Miss Imogene MacDonald at the piano, after which Mr. Mayhew opened the rally service with some brief and inspiring remarks on the importance of young people's work.

Appeal to Young People. R. C. Hubbard, of Evansville, read an able paper on "God's Call for an able paper on 'God's Call for the young people to prepare themselves for social work and held that every person should receive two calls from God, one for preparation and one for work. If the first call to prepare was not heeded, the call to work would never be given.

The open parliament on the work of Christian Culture courses was especially good and was led by President Mayhew. Rev. Richard M. Vaughan was called on to tell of the work of the Christian culture class which he organized last fall.

The honors of the afternoon were won by Miss Ella Stoddard, representing the society at Albany, where she is a teacher. She spoke on "Our Juniors," giving the best talk of the afternoon. Miss Stoddard illustrated her talk with a number of cute stories.

The Rural Societies. An excellent address on "Elements of Success in a Rural Society" was given by U. G. Walte, of Afton. He named the three necessary elements as grit, grace and gumption and spoke forcibly and in original style.

E. A. Shattuck of Clinton, led the general discussion on "Problems of Our Societies." The principal problem discussed was how to interest the members to work actively and how to secure active service from the younger members. The discussion was participated in by Mrs. J. T. Fitchett, Misses Elizabeth Palmer, Imogene MacDonald, Katherine Stoddard, of this city, Miss Maude Gillies of Evansville, and Rev. D. B. Cheney, the state president.

J. T. Fitchett also spoke ably on the financial problem, the kernel of his thought being that the only true method is to go down into the pocket and give.

Power of the Social. An excellent paper on "The Power of the Social" was read by Miss Maude Gillies of Evansville. She urged that social should be used as money-making projects but that the main purpose should be the forming of acquaintances for the purpose of saving souls.

Mrs. Stall, of Beloit, Miss Macomber of Brodhead and E. A. Shattuck of Clinton were added to the executive board and some routine business was transacted.

The Evening Session. At the evening session, Vice President, R. C. Hubbard of Evansville presided and Miss Rose Hathorn was the pianist, Miss Elizabeth Palmer, leading the singing.

The evening program included three able addresses, the first speaker being Rev. T. J. Parsons, of Clinton, who spoke of the importance of doing the duties which lie close at hand instead of longing for work in another field farther away and accomplishing nothing.

Rev. D. B. Cheney, the state president, emphasized the fact that the hope of the Baptist church in Wisconsin is in the young people.

The best address of the evening was the one given by Rev. Richard M. Vaughan, of this city, who spoke on "Culture and Consecration."

God, he said, revealed himself more through John than through Jude. The first element of culture is knowledge, the other is spirituality, and the attainment of both requires effort. Then when the arrow is well polished put it in the quiver and hold it ready for God's service. No matter how polished the arrow it is of little use unless it is close at hand when needed.

HUMAN EXISTENCE IN SPIRIT FORM

Harrison D. Barrett Speaks on Spiritualism at the Home of Hiram Merrill Last Evening.

An appreciative audience gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Merrill, last evening and listened to an entertaining lecture by Harrison D. Barrett, of Boston, editor of the Banner of Light and president of the W. S. A. His talk was on the existence of people in a spirit form after death. He believed that with a laboratory large enough the invisible substances might be reformed into material form.

He cited instances of spiritual communications being narrated in the Bible. He accepted these narrations as true, because he had knowledge of similar manifestations occurring at the present time. He claimed that there was no way a person could avoid the cause of his acts, and that the results of life went with the spirit into the realms beyond. That death only changed man from the visible to the invisible, and that his life in the invisible state continued on for all time.

He said of spiritualism that it adds to the sum total of human knowledge, subtracts truth from seeming errors, multiplies comforts and divides blessings among all mankind.

He stated that by people, leading a high pure life they could be brought into communication with the loved ones that had gone before without the use of an intermediary.

The audience asked Mr. Barrett a number of questions at the close of his address which created an interesting discussion. The speaker is an eloquent gentleman who has taken great pains to inform himself on an important subject and is willing to give the public the benefit of his researches. The audience was composed of leading citizens and business men who expressed themselves as much pleased with the lecture.

Everett-Moore Syndicate Creditors Concede to the Proposed Plan.

YEAR AND A HALF IS ASKED.

Cleveland Bank, on Which a Run Is Started, Takes Measures to Protect Its Funds—Depositors Must Give Sixty Days' Notice.

Cleveland, Jan. 4.—Many of the out-of-town creditors of the Everett-Moore syndicate have already sent in their acceptance of the plan to give the syndicate eighteen months' extension of time in which to meet its liabilities, and Chairman Newcomb of the committee of bankers that is now in charge expresses himself as confident that the affairs of the syndicate will soon be placed on a solid basis. The Dime Savings and Banking company, in which Messrs. Everett and Moore are directors and on which a run was started in the afternoon, posted a notice later requiring a sixty-day notice from depositors contemplating the withdrawal of their accounts. The depositors were assured that the assets of the bank were enough to pay all liabilities and leave the capital intact. Notwithstanding that the Dime Savings bank is the depository of $1,250,000 of the city's money, Mayor Johnson, after an examination of the bank's statement, has decided that the money shall not be disturbed, and it will remain on deposit in the bank.

New York is quiet. Advice from New York indicates no excitement there as a result of the difficulties. Mr. Moore is a director of the Phoenix National bank of New York, but is said to have placed none of his paper there. Keau, Van Cartland & Co., who act as financial agents for some of the syndicate properties, said they held none of the securities. One New York rumor was that the difficulties of the syndicate were in part caused by its failure to sell its Lake Shore trolley line to the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroad, which it parallels. Reports from many of the syndicate properties indicate that they will not be embarrassed by the trouble. The Youngstown telephone company is reported on a paying basis, as is also the Canton-Massillon City and Interurban Street Railway company.

Many Irons in the Fire. The syndicate is interested in a great system of rural trolley lines being built in Illinois, with their center at Springfield. Lines from that city to Bloomington, Decatur, Jacksonville and St. Louis are already planned and much of the right of way has been secured. No interruption to the work is expected.

Sore and swollen joints, sharp, shooting pains, no rest, no sleep. That means rheumatism. It is a stubborn disease to fight but Chamberlain's Pain Balm has conquered it thousands of times. It will do so whenever the opportunity is offered. Try it. One application relieves the pain. For sale by People's Drug Store and King's Pharmacy.

Griggs for United States Senator. Newark, N. J., Jan. 4.—John W. Griggs, former Governor of New Jersey, and more recently United States Attorney General, is an avowed candidate for United States Senator to succeed General William J. Sewell, deceased. Mr. Griggs announces that he is a candidate for the place.

Three Sentenced to Death. Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 4.—The boiler in the South Pennsylvania Oil Company's pumping station at Harry Rhoden's in Doddridge County blew up scalding to death Harry Rhoden, a pumpman for the company; Merrick Frick, who ran a string of well-cleaning tools, and Dell Ash, his assistant.

Still Pension Old Employees. Cleveland, Jan. 4.—The American Steel and Wire Company has posted notices in all its works making effective Jan. 1, 1902, a pension department, which provides for the pensioning of all old and faithful employees, in accordance with their terms of service.

Neely Placed on Trial. Havana, Jan. 4.—Charged with embezzling $26,000 in postal funds while chief financial agent in Cuba of the United States Postal Department, Charles W. F. Neely, protégé of former Assistant Postmaster General Heath, was put on trial here yesterday.

Sherriff Shot by Convicts. Casper, Wyo., Jan. 4.—In a fight with four escaped prisoners Sheriff W. C. Ricker was shot and probably fatally injured. The outlaws are Clarence and Charles Woodward, David Foote, and C. B. Franklin. They escaped the night of Dec. 31 and Sheriff Ricker followed them to a point seventy-five miles west of Casper, where they were in ambush. They fired on the sheriff's party and Ricker received a shot in the breast from which he cannot recover. The posse has continued the chase for the men, none of whom is thought to have been hurt.

Releases Boy from the Navy. Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 4.—Judge Stevenson has ordered the discharge of Philip Wade Smith from the United States marine service. The boy was stationed at the League Island Navy Yard. A writ of habeas corpus was issued in his behalf, the young man's father having said his son was but 19 years old and had enlisted without his parents' consent. The question at issue was whether a state court had jurisdiction in the matter. Judge Stevenson decided that it was within the court's jurisdiction to act in the case. Notice of an appeal was given.

Epidemic in Michigan City, Ind. Michigan City, Ind., Jan. 4.—Between 1,000 and 2,000 persons in this city are afflicted with "water cholera." The local health officers assert that the epidemic is caused by the action of the water company during the recent cold weather in furnishing its customers with water pumped from the harbor of Lake Michigan at a place not more than 1,300 feet from the emptying point of the main city sewer. A report to this effect has been made to the Indiana state board of health.

Citizens Fight Bank Robbers. St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 4.—At Camden Point, Mo., forty miles from St. Joseph, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning a band of four robbers entered the town and blew open with dynamite the vault of the Bank of Camden Point. The noise of the explosion aroused the citizens and a pitched battle ensued between them and the robbers. After severe fighting the robbers fled and escaped on a handcar. One of the robbers was known to have been injured.

To Sell Children at Auction. Youngstown, Ohio, Jan. 4.—Captain McDiarmid of the Salvation Army has announced that one week from Sunday night he will sell at auction ten children on the stage of the Park Theater. Captain McDiarmid said: "I have the consent of the parents of these children and shall sell each to the highest bidder. I will keep within the letter of the law and see that each child secures a good home and is properly educated."

Gans Knocks Out Broderick. Baltimore, Jan. 4.—Joe Gans, the Baltimore lightweight, demonstrated his ability by knocking out Tom Broderick of Yonkers, N. Y., in the sixth round of what was scheduled to be a twenty-five round bout. Broderick is a welterweight while Gans is a lightweight.

Mysterious Death at St. Paul. St. Paul, Jan. 4.—Bernard Michel, 67 years old, was found in his office with his throat cut. It is believed to be a case of suicide. Michel was last seen alive at his home at 10 o'clock last night. Michel was in the real estate and loan business, and was one of the most prominent and wealthy residents of his part of the city.

Three Killed; Three Injured. Johnstown, Pa., Jan. 4.—A wreck on the Pennsylvania Railroad occurred near here at night, resulting in the killing of three persons and the injuring of three more.

Former Buenos Exchange Meetings. New York, Jan. 4.—A dispatch to the Herald from Valparaiso, Chile, says that President Riesco cabled New Year's greeting to President Roca of Argentina.

Cut this out and take it to People's Drug Store or King's Pharmacy and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They also cure disorders of the stomach, biliousness and headache.

Control of Normal Schools. St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 4.—The Supreme Court by a majority opinion has decided that the newly organized state board of control has full charge of all matters pertaining to normal schools, the normal school board having in formal court proceedings questioned the right of the board of control to dictate in normal matters. This closes a notable contest of interest to the whole Northwest.

Two "L" Trains in Collision. Chicago, Jan. 4.—In a collision between two trains on the Metropolitan Elevated railroad at Douglas park boulevard station at 3:30 o'clock a. m. two men were injured, one seriously, and one of the trains was somewhat damaged. The injured are: James Caldwell, hips broken, head and body bruised, and face cut; M. A. Peterson, severely bruised and shaken up.

Ambassador's Daughter in a Sanitarium. Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 4.—Mrs. Spencer D. Newberry, who was recently divorced from Professor Newberry, formerly instructor of chemistry at Cornell university, has been placed in a sanitarium here, her nerves having given way under the strain of family troubles. She is a daughter of Andrew D. White, ambassador to Germany, and was married to Professor Newberry when her father was president of Cornell. The Newberrys have two children, both of them boys, one of whom is at Syracuse and the other is in Germany with Mr. and Mrs. White.

Girl Is Accused. Louisville, Ky., Jan. 4.—Rose Mary Dappen, daughter of John L. Dappen of this city, was presented before United States Commissioner Cassin this morning, charged with sending obscene matter through the mails. She was arrested last night by Inspector Kyle, who says that she rented a postoffice box Friday and sent letters offering to sell nude pictures. The girl left home a year ago, and prior to that time was stenographer for a local insurance company. Bond was furnished, and the case set for March 11th.

St. Louis Walking Match. St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 4.—At the end of the second day of the go-as-you-please match at the West End Coliseum, Shelton, the New York colored man, still leads. Cartwright, the Englishman, is second, and Tracey of Kinderhook, champion of the United States, is third. Tracey passed Hart at night and went into fourth place. He is a very dangerous contender in the race, and appears to be in better shape and shows no signs of track soreness. Shelton is very tired. Hegelman is not doing well.

Died a Rear Admiral. Boston, Mass., Jan. 4.—Information from Washington shows that Captain Richard P. Leary, U. S. N., who died at Chelsea recently, died a Rear Admiral, without being conscious of the fact. It was a promotion which he had looked for, and it is said to have been the one thing which troubled him in his last moments. The appointment was made the day before he died, but it was only when his brother-in-law Dr. Fairfax Irwin, returned from his funeral at Annapolis to Chelsea that the appointment was found.

Lieutenant Frick Is Dead. Philadelphia, Jan. 4.—Lieutenant Horace E. Frick, U. S. N., retired, is dead here at the age of 50 years. Lieutenant Frick entered the navy from civil life as an engineer in 1869. His last cruise was on the Nipsic, which was attached to the United States squadron at Apia, Samoa Islands, at the time of the destructive hurricane of March, 1889, when a number of warships were sunk and many lives were lost.

$10,000 for Columbia Athletics. New York, Jan. 4.—Seth Low's generosity toward undergraduate athletics while president of Columbia University was again made more manifest, when it was reported that it was he who had advanced $10,000 to relieve the indebtedness which was incurred during the season of 1900. Unless Mayor Low had advanced the sum athletics at Columbia would have necessarily been discontinued.

Saw John Brown Hanged. Washington, Jan. 4.—Col. E. W. Ayres dropped dead in the Citizens' National bank here. Col. Ayres belonged to the famous Richmond Blues and was a member of the company that officiated at the hanging of John Brown.

Smallpox at Stewardson, Ill. Moweaqua, Ill., Jan. 4.—Smallpox has assumed such alarming proportions at Stewardson that public meetings are not allowed and the public schools will not open for some time. Several families are quarantined.

Other Ship May Be Europe. Portland, Ore., Jan. 4.—Shipping men here believe the vessel which was in collision with the steamer Walla Walla near Mendocino is the four-masted French bark Europe. The Europe left here on Dec. 11 for Queens-town with a cargo of wheat.

Famous Woman Bridge Tender. New York, Jan. 4.—For forty-five years Mrs. Sarah Titus, better known as "Aunt Sarah," tended the Westchester avenue bridge over the Bronx River, doing the work her husband did before he died. Last Wednesday she passed away and the city record shows that that was the first day she had ever missed from her work. She never took a holiday or a vacation. On one occasion she drove a new appointee off the bridge with a club and the second appointee she tossed in the river. They both concluded they did not want the job.

Decision in a Mining Suit. Butte, Mont., Jan. 4.—Judge Knowles of the United States Court dissolved an injunction which prevented payment of several million dollars dividends to the Amalgamated Company and other stockholders, and decides that the Amalgamated Company is a legal organization and legally holds the stock of the Montana Mining Corporation.

During the month of January Bort, Bailey & Co. are making clearing prices in every department.

Shaw Meets the President. Washington, Jan. 4.—Governor Leslie M. Shaw of Iowa, who will succeed Secretary Gage as secretary of the treasury, has arrived here and is registered at the Arlington. He went to the White House and had a conference with President Roosevelt. Governor Shaw left Chicago in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and came to Washington alone. His train was late and he did not reach here until 7 o'clock. Governor Shaw will return to Des Moines on Monday to be present at the inaugural ceremonies, when Governor-elect Cummins takes the oath of office. He declines to be interviewed on financial or other subjects until after he is sworn in. He had a pleasant journey from Chicago to the national capital. When he assumes the treasury portfolio he will make his home at one of the leading hotels.

Report Attack on Milner. London, Jan. 4.—A rumor was current in the city that an attempt had been made to assassinate Lord Milner, the British high commissioner in South Africa. The rumor, however, was wholly unconfirmed and was entirely discredited in responsible quarters.

Immense Gas Well in Ohio. Lancaster, Ohio, Jan. 4.—An enormous gusher giving a million feet of gas a day was struck yesterday in "Wild Cat" territory near Rockbridge by the Springfield Gas Company. Several dry holes had been drilled near the gusher.

LAXAKOLA

THE GREAT TONIC LAXATIVE

At some time, if not habitually, you have sour stomach, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, bad breath, dizziness, inactive liver, heartburn, kidney troubles, backache, loss of appetite, insomnia, lack of energy, bad blood, blotched or muddy skin, or some of the other symptoms and disorders which tell the story of bad bowels and an impaired digestive system. Laxakola will cure you. It will clean out the bowels, stimulate the liver and kidneys, strengthen the mucous membranes of the stomach, purify your blood and put you "on your feet" again. Your appetite will return, your bowels will move regularly, your liver and kidneys will cease to trouble you, your skin will clear and freshen and you will feel the old time energy and buoyancy.

Mothers who have been seeking the proper medicine to give their little ones for constipation, diarrhea, colic and similar troubles, find Laxakola an ideal medicine for children. Children like its taste and ask for it. It keeps their bowels regular without any pain or griping, and acts as a general tonic at the same time. It will assist nature, aid digestion, relieve restlessness, clear the coated tongue, reduce fever, cause refreshing, restful sleep and make them well, happy and hearty.

Laxakola, the great laxative tonic, is not only most the efficient of family remedies, but the most economical, because it combines two medicines, viz: laxative and tonic, and at one price. No other LAXAKOLA CO., 33 Nassau Street, N. Y., or 35 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

DIPLOMATS IN WASHINGTON

Each succeeding year brings changes in the diplomatic corps at Washington, and interest always surrounds the newcomers who are to make their first bows to society in the national capital. This season presents many strangers, for there have been numerous changes among the representatives of foreign governments.

Uncle Sam now has diplomatic relations with more than thirty countries, which are represented at the American capital by six embassies and thirty legations.

The nearest approach to the pomp and pageantry of a royal court, with its emblems and insignia of rank, its stately ceremonials and dazzling splendor of gorgeous uniforms, is to be found in the assemblages of the diplomatic corps. In glitter, sparkle and color these levees present the most attractive of all the spectacular features of social life at the national capital.

Since the consequences of the Spanish-American war have installed the United States in the position of a world power the diplomatic contingent has been growing larger year by year until now representatives of nearly every land and clime are to be found in the foreign colony.

Embassadors are the bright particular stars of the diplomatic firmament, not only enjoying higher rank than plenipotentiaries, but are considered to represent more directly their sovereign or government.

There are only a few occasions each year, however, when the general public may feast its eyes upon this show of gilt and feathers, the New Year's reception at the White House, the diplomatic reception and the diplomatic dinner being the special occasions on which the foreign contingent don their showiest court costumes and gold-laden uniforms. These gorgeous habiliments are in marked contrast to the simple costume worn by Uncle Sam's envoys at the courts of Europe. Our diplomats are restricted to the dress of a American citizen.

In the official plumage of the foreign diplomats, on the other hand, there is displayed nearly every color and hue. Diplomatic court dress embraces everything from splendid uniforms of gawdy crimson to snowy white, gaudy with gold embroideries and off in many instances by fur trimmings and a wealth of decorations.

Among the notable additions to the diplomatic corps this season is Phya Akharaj, the first Siamese to be permanently accredited to Washington. He is the first Siamese to be permanently accredited to Washington.

Edmondo Mayor des Planches, Italian ambassador, who succeeds Giovanni Pava; Baron Ludovic Moncheur, Belgian minister, and the new Persian minister also make their first appearance.

Edmondo Mayor des Planches, Italian ambassador, is not a scion of ancient or new nobility of his country. He is a well educated and highly equipped business man and owns commercial houses at Florence, Milan, Genoa and Naples. In appearance he is a well preserved and aged man of more than fifty years.

Awake, full of business sagacity and very courteous. He is negotiating one of the handsome residences in the exclusive quarter of the northwest.

He said that he has offered $130,000 for the residence of Bishop Hurst on Massachusetts avenue and Seventh street. Meantime he is quietly settled on one of the modest little streets which run along the wall of the Visitation academy and is known as De Sales street. It is more probable that his prospective purchase will be made in the name of the Italian government and that Italy will maintain its own ambassadorial home in the capital.

Baron Ludovic Moncheur, the new Belgian minister, comes to Washington from Mexico and succeeds Count Liekevelde. He was born in Brussels and began his diplomatic career as an attaché of the Belgian legation at The Hague. From there he went to Madrid, then to Vienna, Berlin and Lisbon. In Rome Baron Moncheur represented his government as counselor, and in Luxembourg he was acting charge d'affaires. His next post was in Mexico as Belgium's minister.

While in Mexico Baron Moncheur met the daughter of Powell Clayton, American ambassador, Miss Charlotte Clayton, to whom he will be married on Jan. 15 in her father's home.

Baron Moncheur is a widower and one of the most genial and democratic men in the diplomatic service. His wife was Miss Holman, the half sister of Mr. Padelford of Washington. The baron has three children, little girls.

who are still in Mexico, but will come to Washington in the spring with their grandmother, with whom they will live after their arrival here.

Baron Moncheur has taken the house of the late Senator and Mrs. Davis, 1719 H street, and is furnishing it very handsomely for the reception of his bride. The minister and his bride will doubtless entertain extensively, as the baron enjoys society.

More than usual interest is manifested in the new Persian minister, who succeeds General Isma Khan, one of the most popular members of the diplomatic corps. On his arrival in Washington he was entertained at a large dinner given in his honor by the Russian ambassador and Countess Cassini, thus receiving his introduction to social life under the most happy auspices.

Phya Akharaj, the Siamese envoy, comes from the land where the white elephant is a sacred creature, housed in a golden palace, fed and attended by awe-stricken domestics and served on bended knee. Nevertheless he displays all the outward signs of civilization. His diplomatic uniform is, according to the international fashion of the corps, a spiked coat, richly embroidered with fern leaves and branches laid on heavy bullion. He wears the regulation cocked hat of a lieutenant general and the white trousers of a huzzar.

He is a young man to have attained his diplomatic rank, a native of the capital of his country, Bangkok, and a descendant of the ancient nobility. After completing his home education he was sent to Oxford, where he took both graduate and postgraduate degrees. He is a very wealthy man, both in his own right and in his expected inheritance. His previous official experience has been in the office of the secretary of state of Siam. At the time of his appointment to Washington he was first assistant secretary of state.

Mirrors of the Greeks and Romans.

The mirrors of the ancient Greeks and Romans were thin disks of bronze, highly polished and usually fashioned with handles, though sometimes they were set upright on stands. Later on silver was used, and the first mirror of solid silver is said to have been made by Praxiteles in the time of Julius Caesar. Subsequently silver mirrors took the place of brass or bronze ones almost altogether, though steel, copper and even gold were also employed. Looking glasses of metal were employed everywhere up to the fifteenth century.

Just within her grasp is safety—but she does not see it; she is looking the wrong way. There's many a woman struggling in a sea of disease who is doing the same thing—looking the wrong way—snatching at medicinal straws when the life buoy, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, is within her reach. Many a woman has testified: "I know I should not be alive to-day but for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription." This famous medicine establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Weak and sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I take pleasure in writing to let you know the great good I received from your 'Favorite Prescription' and your 'Pleasant Pellets,' says Mrs. Nora Gaddie, of Rio, Hart Co., Ky. 'I took seven or eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one or two vials of the 'Pellets.' Think I would have been in my grave had it not been for your medicines. It has been about four months since I took the medicine. I was all run down, had loss of appetite, could not sleep at night, was nervous, had backache, black spots on my limbs, and sick headache all the time. I have not had sick headache since I took your medicine."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure dizziness and sick headache.

KILLED AT HER REQUEST.

Confession of Holcomb to the slaying of Pearl Sutton.
St. Louis, Jan. 4.—All mystery as to the death of Pearl Sutton and the shooting of Charles T. Holcomb in a room at the Gould hotel, 7 South Sixth street, has been dispelled by the finding of a letter in Holcomb's trunk. It was written and signed by him a few hours before the woman was killed and is one of the most remarkable documents that ever fell into the hands of the police. The letter deliberately sets out Holcomb's plans to take his own life, and declares the woman, wishing to die with him and being too weak to kill herself, asked him to end her life. His health, dull business and sad news from his home in Corsicana, Texas, are given as the causes. Holcomb is now in the city hospital. In his brief intervals he has confessed to the killing of the woman. An inquest on her body has been held by the coroner and a verdict of murder was returned. City hospital physicians say Holcomb can never live to answer the charge.

$5,400 for life of dog.
Toledo, Ohio, Jan. 4.—The Circuit court has handed down a decision affirming a decision of the lower courts giving Mrs. Adelaide Smith of Fremont a judgment of $5,400 against the estate of the late President R. B. Hayes. This is the second time this case has been in the Circuit court. Upon the first hearing in the Common Pleas court Mrs. Smith secured a judgment of $7,500. The Circuit court reduced it to $5,000, and the Supreme court then remanded the case back to the Common Pleas court for rehearing on error. The Common Pleas court at the second hearing gave Mrs. Smith a verdict for $5,400, and the Circuit court has now affirmed this. Mrs. Smith was bitten by a dog belonging to the late President, and this is the cause for action.

Military Marriages in Germany.

Army and navy officers in Germany are not allowed to marry unless they have a certain private income and must make a deposit of 30,000 marks cash ($7,500) with the government before the marriage can take place. This is deposited to their credit in the public treasury, and they receive 3 per cent interest a year. At the death of the officer the principal is refunded to his family. The purpose of this rule is to protect the government from the burden of destitute officers' families and also to protect the officer against court-martial, for the regulations prohibit him from incurring debts.

Snow Is Bullet-Proof.

Snow is the substance which offers a most surprising resistance to penetration by a rifle bullet, far more, indeed, than wood. Experiments made in Norway have shown that a snow wall four feet thick is absolutely proof against the Norwegian army rifle, which, by the way, is of quite exceptional piercing power, and that at all ranges from fifty yards up to half a mile. This suggests a new means of defense in winter campaigning as snow is far more easily and quickly handled than earth or sandbags.—Chicago Journal.

Brooks Lawyer of a Habit.

A Kansas lawyer was recently broken of the habit of writing his name all over every blank piece of paper he sat down before. When trying a suit he would scratch his name all over the papers on the table in front of him. One day a friend of his got hold of a slip of paper on which he had written his signature and over it wrote a promissory note for $10,000. He took the note to a local banker and asked him to present it to him for collection, which was done. He didn't pay the note, but he stopped writing his name on everything.

Trade Secrets are Guarded.

The Germans are very jealous in guarding their trade secrets, and I find it difficult to obtain information concerning new inventions and processes of public interest which is always freely communicated in the United States. The patent laws over here are even more protective in the interest of patentees, but there seems to be an apprehension lest information obtained for American newspapers may in some way be utilized by Yankee ingenuity to the disadvantage of Germany.

Disqualifying Man for Kingship.
Adoni-bezek, mentioned in the Book of Judges, was captured by the Jews, who cut off his thumbs and great toes. This was done to prevent his making any attempt to regain his throne, as in the east a maimed man could not be a king.

Progress of New City Hall

The stone cornice of the new city hall is about all in place and the structure is nearly ready for the roof. Foreman John Payne has a force of carpenters at work getting the beams and timbers ready and they will be placed in position as soon as the stone work is completed. Mr. Rowson is confident that with good weather they will have the roof completed and the building all enclosed in by Feb. 1. The covering for the roof will be of slate and can be laid in almost any kind of weather that the men can stand it to work in.

Enjoyable Dancing Party

The social held in connection with Prof. Kehl's dancing class at East Side Odd Fellows' hall last evening was one of the most enjoyable of dancing parties. An orchestra of three pieces, from the State School for the Blind furnished excellent music and about seventy-five couples glided through waltzes, two steps and redows over the smoothly polished floor. At the close of the evening Prof. Kehl announced that the next meeting would be held next Monday evening and every Monday evening thereafter, instead of on Fridays as heretofore.
